

2012

Calendar for International Trainings at PMDT CoE

(1) Programmatic Management of Drug resistant Tuberculosis (PMDT) training course

Course objectives

The PMDT course objectives are:

- Provide an overview of the global and regional PMDT situation, guidelines and policies
- Provide evidence based training on the PMDT from Rwandan PMDT demonstrations facilities and NTP
- Provide training on the Clinical Management of DR-TB for specialized clinicians
- Provide insight into Ethical issues related to PMDT
- Introduction to research within PMDT

Target group

PMDT Managers, Focal Points and Clinicians working in MDR facilities or intending to

Language: English

Duration: July 23rd to 28th, 2012 (1 week)

Tuition Fee: USD 960/course/person

(2) Basic TB Infection Control course

Course objectives

Objective:

The objective of the training course is to strengthen participants' competencies in TB-IC on managerial, administrative, environmental, and personal protection controls by updating on best practices and tools in TB-IC programmes

Target group: This is basic TB IC course targeting TB Infection Control professionals who are engaged in TB-IC programme implementation and would like to scale-up TB IC activities in their respective countries.

Duration: 18th to 22nd June 2012

Tuition fee: USD 996/course/person

Language: French/English

For further information on all courses, contact:

University Avenue
B.P 5229, Kigali Rwanda
Tel: +250 585 166
Fax: +250 500 014
Email: infosph@nursph.org
Website: www.nursph.org

(3) International Laboratory Training Course

Course objectives

At the end of the course, participants are expected to have gained:

- Updates on lab developments related to Drug resistant TB
- New developments in research within PMDT (included laboratory)
- Able to Conduct appropriate laboratory processes and techniques of growth detection
- Able to Monitor quality indicators (e.g. internal quality control) and conduct external quality assessment of growth detection and identification

Duration: Aug 26th to Sept 7th 2012 (1 week)

Tuition fee: USD 996/course/person
Living/accommodation expense: USD 80-100/day/person

Language: French

NB: All courses are available
any time on demand